SERIAL No. 6

Sir,

In acknowledging receipt of your No. 3146 dated the 2nd November 1911, I have the honor to intimate that I do not find the name of Mr. Balaji Rao of Harihar amongst the recipients of the certificates in Chitaldrug District.

This gentleman rendered very great service along with Messrs. R.T. Mahadeva Rao and R.T. Ramappa and I am sure if Mr. M.A. Narayana Iyengar the then Revenue Sub Division Officer, has sent up the recommendation it would have been impossible for this omission to have occurred. As I was a personal witness to the help rendered by Mr. Balaji Rao I strongly recommend that his services be kindly recognised by the Government and at least a certificate be awarded to him. At the time I sent up the recommendation the omission of Mr. Balaji Rao's name in the Chitaldrug District escaped my notice.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Offg. Sanitary Commissioner.
